ABOUT US

Originally founded in June 2019 by Danny Moody CSyP, Tobruk Protective Security Solutions Ltd has developed and grown into a trusted provider of strategic protective security services across the UK.

Since its inception, Tobruk has successfully delivered a wide range of consultancy and protective security projects for a diverse client base in London and across the UK, helping organisations strengthen their security posture through tailored, risk-based solutions.

MEET THE TEAM

Danny Moody CSyP, RISC - Founder & Managing Director

A Chartered Security Professional and successful business owner Danny has over 20 years of security leadership experience gained at blue chip organisations and iconic locations. He is an active member of the Association of Security Consultants and serves on the City of London Crime Prevention Association committee.

Tom Gunning - NED

An experienced business leader with a strong track record in building and scaling successful enterprises. Having grown his own company into a respected Chartered Building and Principal Contractor, he brings strategic, operational, and commercial expertise to Tobruk PSS.

Andy McStravick - Strategic Business Advisor

Andy brings 30 years of leadership experience spanning law enforcement, financial regulation, and corporate strategy. A former Metropolitan Police Detective and senior executive at the London Stock Exchange, he has led major investigations, regulatory reform, and strategic growth initiatives. Andy provides expert guidance on governance, risk, and business expansion.

Kelly Moody - Director / Office Manager

A highly experienced Legal Secretary, Kelly ensures client reports are accurate and professionally presented, while managing appointments, invoicing, and day-to-day operations. Her attention to detail and approachable manner make her an indispensable part of the team.
